

Discussion Questions

Jesus' Last Week

Gary Osborn | April 14, 2019

1. Have you ever been in a court of law or situation where you felt unfairly treated or felt the judge violated your rights?
2. How do you deal with being let down or betrayed?
3. Knowing that Jesus was able to be silent during all these trumped up charges, and knowing that His Spirit lives in you, how should that make a difference when you're falsely accused? Matthew 26:62-63
4. Jesus often confronted injustice with action, but here he was silent. Why?
5. How do you feel knowing that Jesus voluntarily suffered and died for you? How should I respond?
6. Is there any part of the arrest, trial and crucifixion that you did not know about or realize before? What was it?
7. Why do you think it became dark about the time Jesus died? Luke 23:44
8. What is the significance of the veil of the temple being torn in two? Luke 23:45
